

Fighting Corruption and Citizen Engagement

What OGP Countries' Action Plans Say?

Gábor Zimmerer

Why Is It Important to Tackle Corruption?

- Corruption undermines political development
- Corruption negatively affects economic development
- Corruption facilitates social inequality

Which Are the Areas Particularly Exposed to Corruption?

- Party Financing
- Public Procurement
- The Private Sector
- The Judiciary System

How Does Civil Society Contribute to Good Governance?

- Monitoring
- Participating in Decision-making

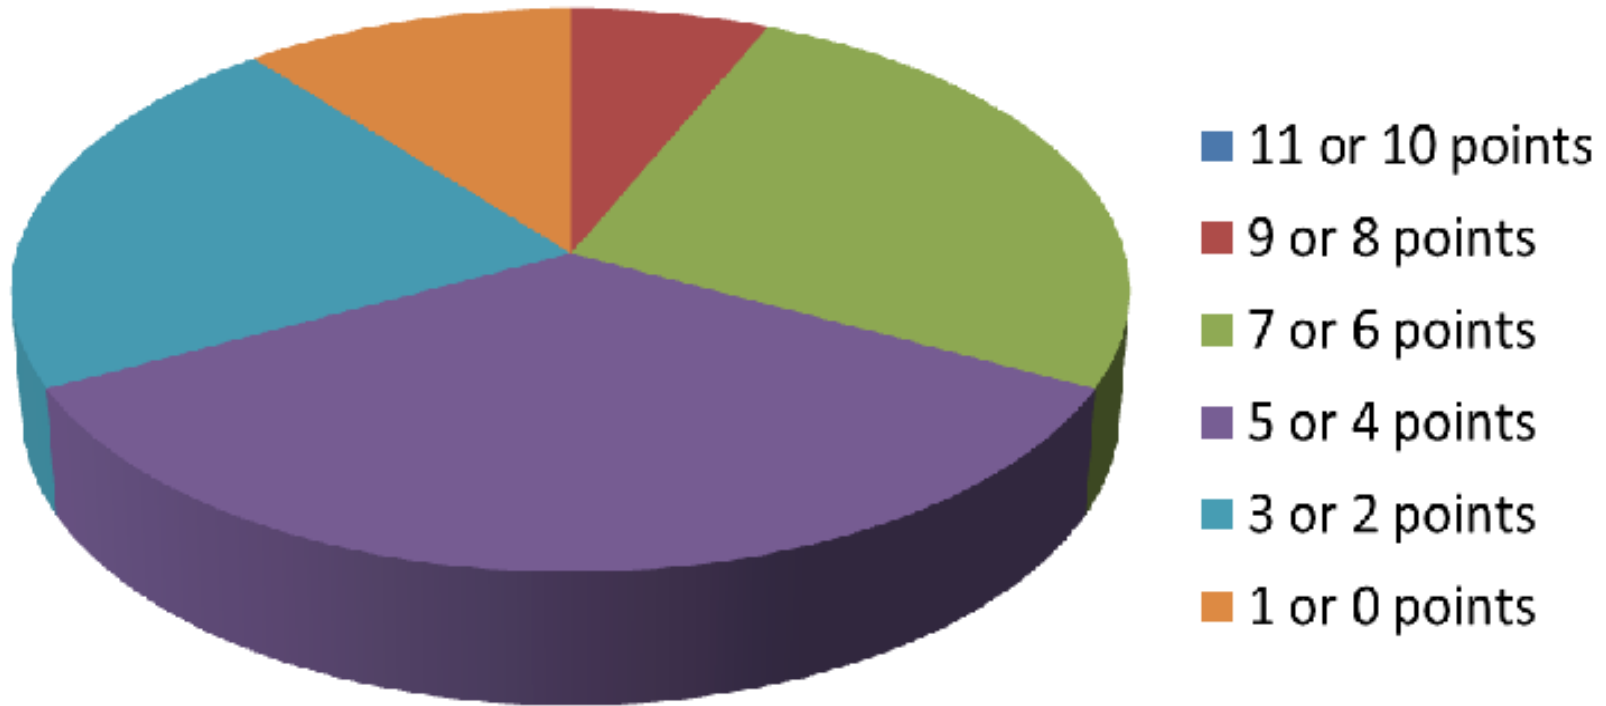

The Three Steps to Making Sense of Empowerment

- Understanding your community
- Understanding the available tools
- Understanding the challenges

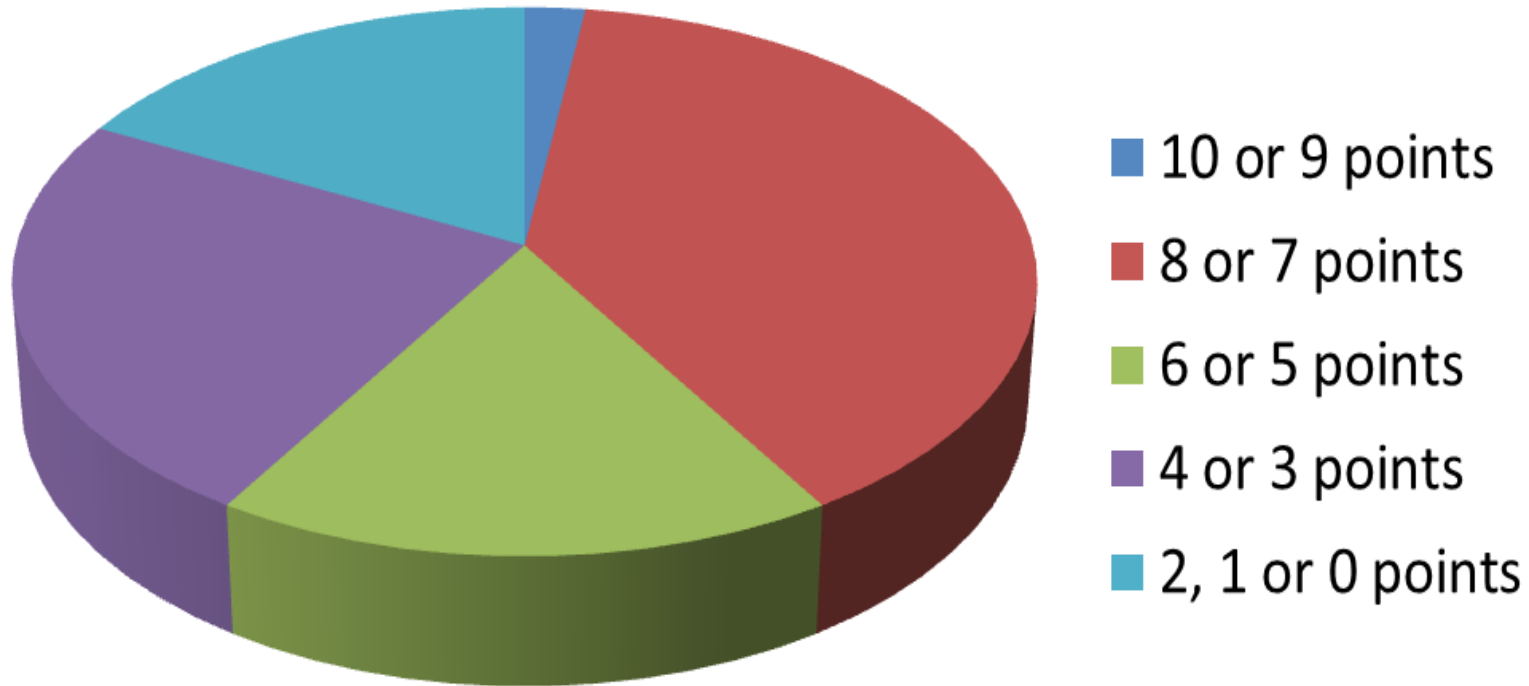

How Do Countries Understand the 'Fight Against Corruption' and 'Civil Society Engagement'?

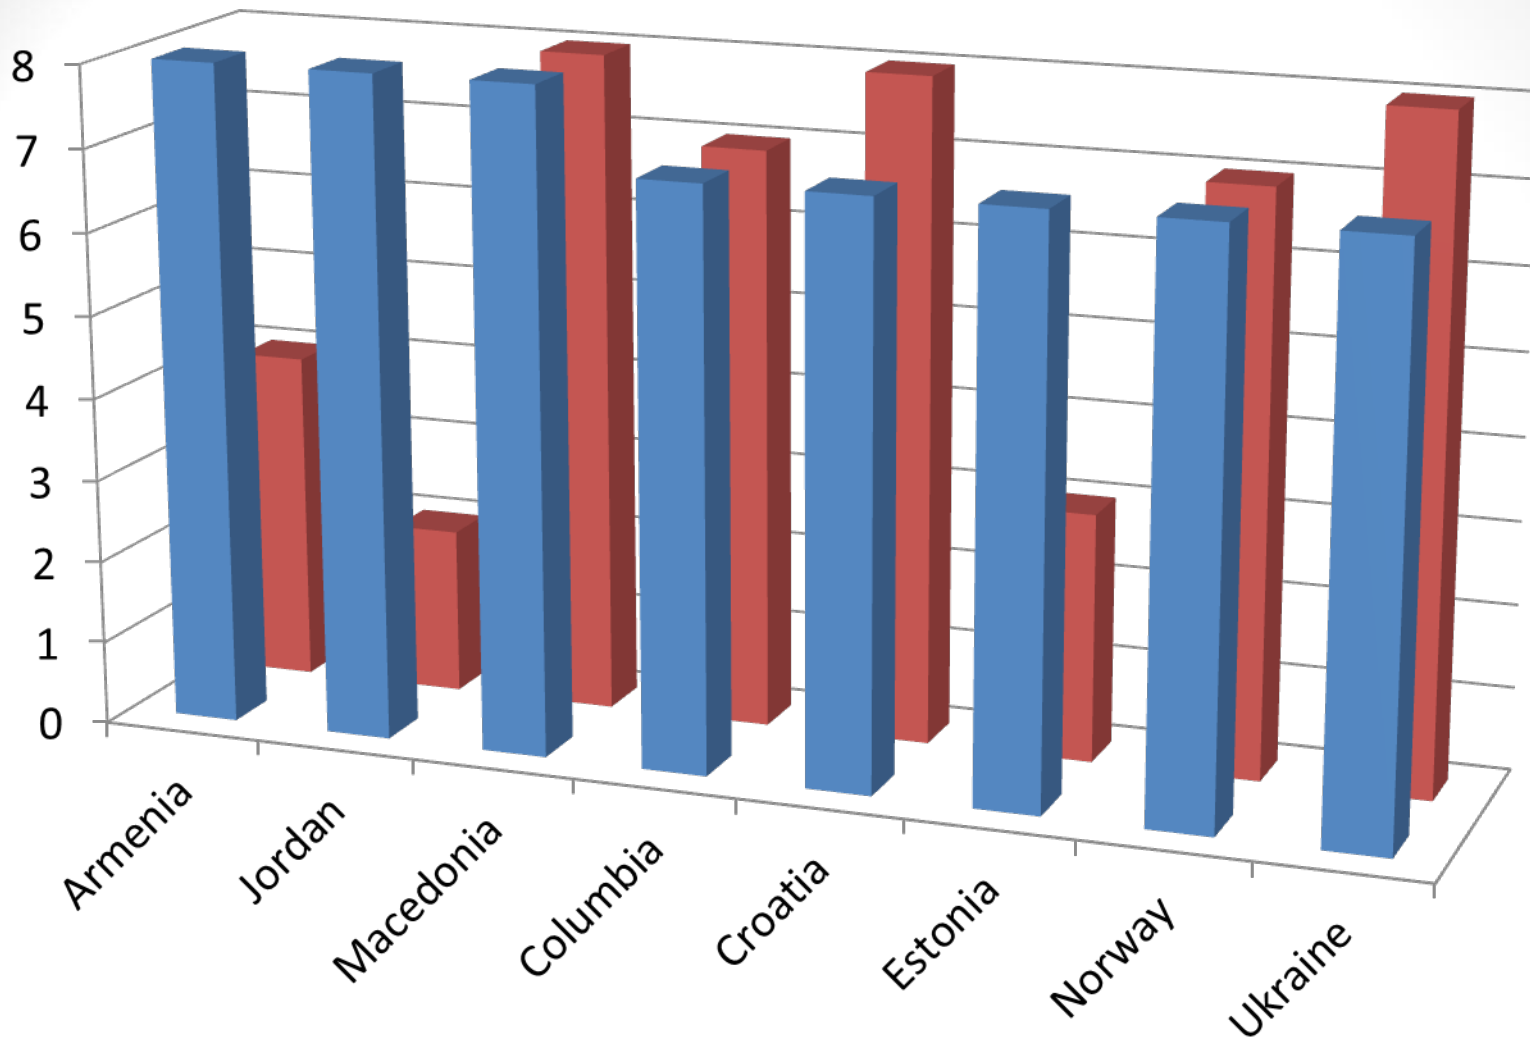

- What is the overall trend?
- Which are the most 'popular' areas?
- What further factors should be taken into consideration?

The distribution of ratings – Fighting Corruption

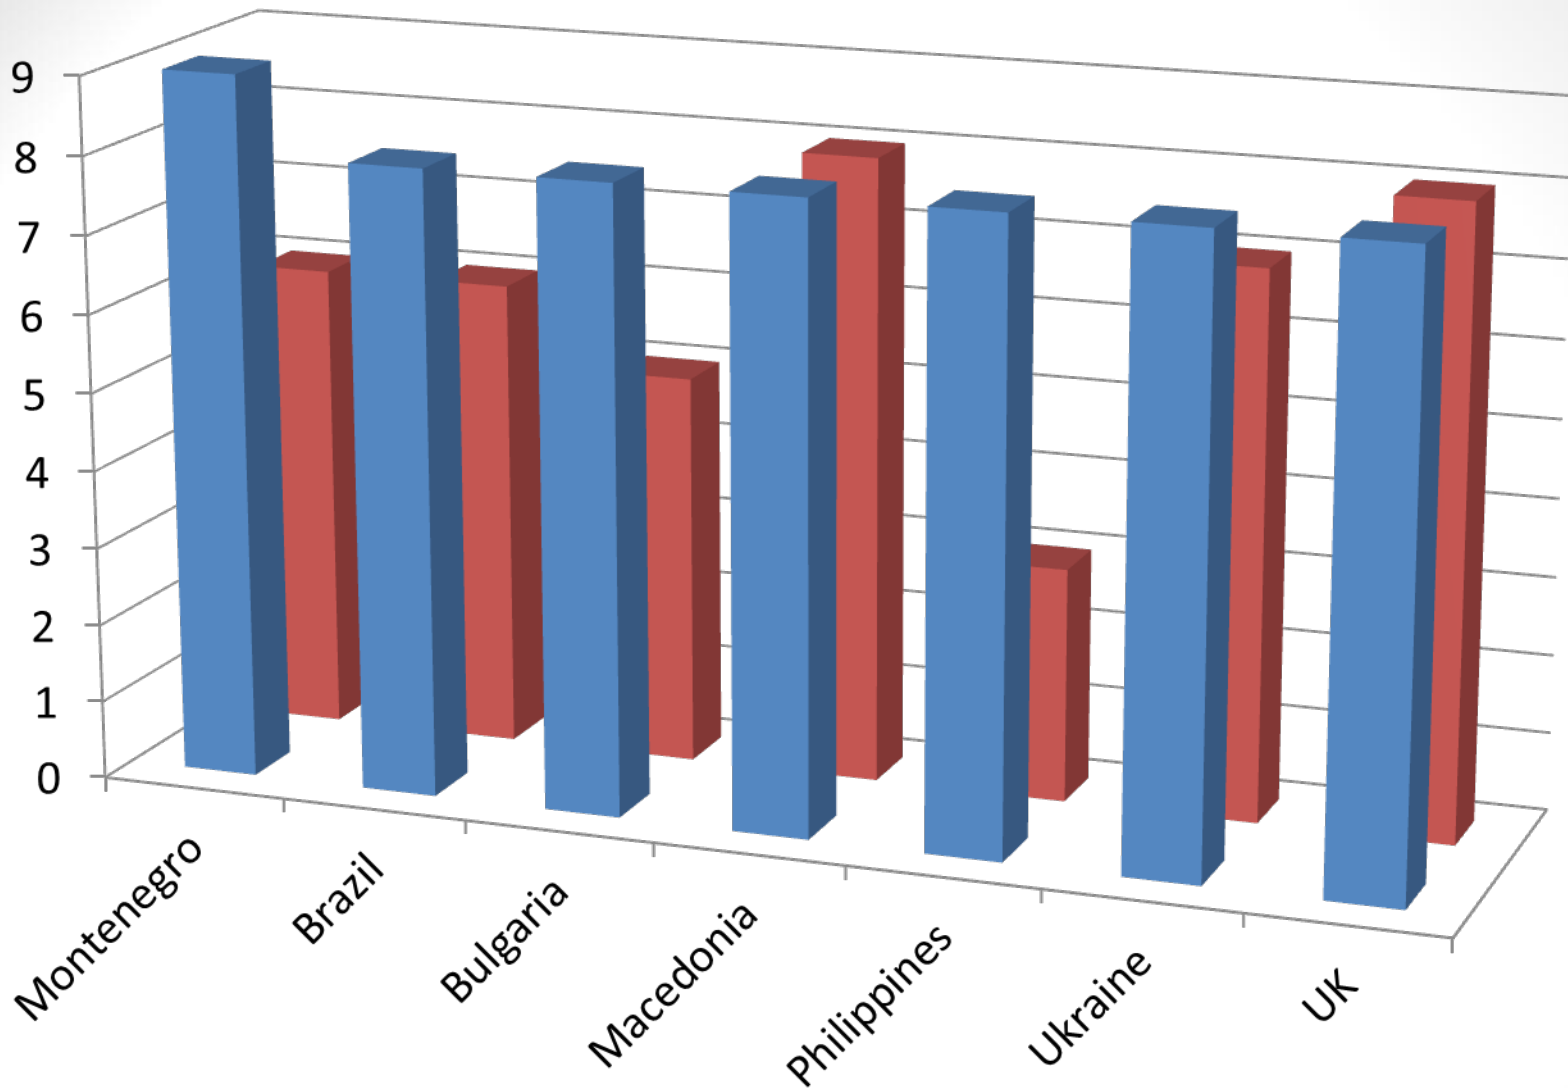

The distribution of ratings – Citizen Engagement

■ Anti-Corruption Measures (out of 11 points)

■ Civil Society Engagement (out of 10 points)

TRANSPARENCY INTERNATIONAL
the coalition against corruption

■ Civil Society Engagement (out of 10 points)

■ Anti-Corruption Measures (out of 11 points)

Thank you for your attention!